1. Definitions

The “Trust” refers to the company known as the University Schools Trust, East London and all Trustees, Governors and Staff who work within it.

A “School” refers to an individual academy within the Trust, as denoted by their Unique Reference Number. As such a ‘school’ may span one or several phases of education to the individual academies within the Trust. Depending on the context the term “School” may refer to a singular academy or to all of the academies within the Trust but as separate entities.

The “Staff” refers to any individual who is employed by the Trust or who operates on the Trust’s behalf, e.g. Trustees and Governors.

A “Parent” includes the natural or adoptive parent of a students as well as any non-parent / carer who has parental responsibility including being involved in the day to day care of a student.

A “Student” includes any incoming or current student at any School within the Trust. It also includes any individual who was previously a student at any School within the Trust and who has left within the appropriate timeframe for consideration as necessary, e.g. complaints.

The “Headteacher” is defined as the individual who has ultimate responsibility for a school in line with UST strategy, approach, ethos and values. Individual schools may have alternative titles for this position such as Executive Headteacher or Principal.

Definition of ‘disability’ under the Equality Act 2010 states: “You are disabled if you have a physical or mental impairment that has a ‘substantial’ and ‘long-term’ negative effect on your ability to do normal daily activities.” The definition includes people with a Hearing or Visual Impairment, Cerebral Palsy, Muscular Dystrophy, Mental Health Issues and Incontinence. People with ADHD, Autistic Spectrum Disorder, Downs Syndrome and Hydrocephalus are included. Medical conditions such as Cystic Fibrosis, severe Asthma, Diabetes, Cancer, Multiple Sclerosis, Epilepsy, Sickle Cell Anaemia and HIV are deemed disabilities. Facial disfigurement, severe Dyslexia, gross obesity and diagnosed eating disorders are all included.

If a person has been disabled in the past (for example, people recovering from cancer and people with a history of mental illness) they are still covered by the legislation for the rest of their life.

A child or young person has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

A child of compulsory school age or a young person has a learning difficulty or disability if he or she:

- has a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age, or
- has a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools or mainstream post-16 institutions

Special educational provision is educational or training provision that is additional to or different from that made generally for other children or young people of the same age by mainstream schools, maintained nursery schools, mainstream post-16 institutions or by relevant early years providers.

Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice: 0 to 25 years January 2015

2. Scope of the Policy

This plan applies to all students with accessibility needs, their parents and all staff and governors, both promoting and supporting equality for all.

It is to be reviewed every 3 years by the members of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) with responsibility for Inclusion in order to be in line with the most up-to-date interventions for young people and to consider changes in the student population. The plan may be reviewed at any time during the academic year should the need arise.

3. Policy Aims and Ethos

The Equality Act 2010 replaces previous discrimination law and provides a single piece of legislation covering all the types of discrimination that are unlawful.

The Act requires all schools in England and Wales to carry out accessibility planning for disabled students.

Royal Greenwich Trust School's accessibility plan is aimed at:

- Increasing the extent to which disabled students can participate in the curriculum.
- Improving the physical environment to enable disabled students to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided.
- Improving the availability of accessible information to disabled students.
- Improving accessibility for other adult users of the School with disabilities including staff, visitors and community users.

We recognise the need to provide adequate resources for implementing plans and will regularly review them.

4. Links to Legislation and Guidance Documents

4.1. Relevant Internal Policies

This policy should be read in conjunction with the following policies;

- Admissions Policy
- Behaviour for Learning Policy
- Equality and Diversity Policy
- Exams Policy
- Exclusion Policy
- First Aid and Medical Policy
- SEND Policy
- Student Mental Health and Well-Being Policy
- Wheelchair Policy

5. Roles and Responsibilities

5.1: Headteacher and Senior Leader Responsibility

The Headteacher, assisted by Senior Leaders will ensure reasonable adjustments are made to the school environment, curriculum and extra-curricular activities to deliver accessibility for all where possible.

The Headteacher, in collaboration with class teachers, support staff and others involved in the education of disabled students at Royal Greenwich Trust School, will review this policy and associated plans on a regular basis.

As part of the regular school cycle of policy reviews, the results of actions to support students with disabilities will be undertaken to inform future plans. These actions will be detailed in the School Development Plan. The school will agree with parents the appropriate regular means of communication with regard to the student's progress, behavioural issues and effects of any medication.

5.2: Parental Responsibility

Parents will be invited, during induction / admissions meetings, to inform the school about any disabilities and share their concerns about their child and schooling.

This information will be analysed, considering the following:

- Areas of the curriculum to which disabled students have limited or no access;
- Disability issues are reflected adequately and where appropriately within the curriculum;
- The accessibility of extra-curricular activities;
- Parts of the school to which disabled students have limited or no access and whether physical features of the school environment hamper access to the curriculum;
- The different forms of communication that can be made available to enable all disabled students to express their views and to hear the views of others;
- The accessibility of information, which should be planned and available on request in a range of different formats;
- Other issues that may affect the participation of disabled students, for example:
 - Bullying, peer relationships, policies on the administration of medicines, the provision of personal care, and the presence or lack of role models or images of disabled people.

It is parents' responsibility to update the school to any changes which may affect a student's access to; the school building, their curriculum, their engagement to lessons, their involvement in extra-curricular activities and any other issues which may have an impact.
