1. Definitions

The “Trust” refers to the company known as the University Schools Trust, East London and all Trustees, Governors and Staff who work within it.

A “School” refers to an individual academy within the Trust, as denoted by their Unique Reference Number. As such a ‘school’ may span one or several phases of education to the individual academies within the Trust. Depending on the context the term “School” may refer to a singular academy or to all of the academies within the Trust but as separate entities.

The “Staff” refers to any individual who is employed by the Trust or who operates on the Trust’s behalf, e.g. Trustees and Governors.

A “Parent” includes the natural or adoptive parent of a pupil as well as any non-parent / carer who has parental responsibility including being involved in the day to day care of a pupil.

A “Pupil” includes any incoming or current pupil at any School within the Trust. It also includes any individual who was previously a pupil at any School within the Trust and who has left within the appropriate timeframe for consideration as necessary, e.g. complaints. The term pupil is used as standard by the UST in its policy documents but can be replaced with the term “student” or “child” with no change of definition.

The “Headteacher” is defined as the individual who has ultimate responsibility for a school in line with UST strategy, approach, ethos and values. Individual schools may have alternative titles for this position such as Executive Headteacher or Principal.

“Gatsby Benchmarks” refers to the Gatsby Charitable Foundation’s Benchmarks, which define all of the elements of an excellent careers programme, based on the best national and international research. (see Appendix A for Gatsby Benchmarks and their definitions)

“Careers guidance” is defined, in the relevant statute, as a full range of activity delivered under the eight Gatsby Benchmarks.

“Independent” is defined as anything that is external to the school. External sources of careers support could include employer visits, mentoring, website, telephone and helpline access and personal guidance provided externally to the school. Taken together, the external sources must include information on the range of education and training options, including apprenticeships. Personal guidance does not have to be external – it can be delivered by school staff, if trained. Where this advice or any other element of the careers programme is internal, it must be supplemented by external sources of support to ensure compliance with the legal duty.

2. Scope of the Policy

This policy sets out the provision of Careers Education, Information and Guidance (CEIAG) at Royal Greenwich Trust School (RGTS). It is to be reviewed annually by the member of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) with responsibility for CEIAG and the CEIAG lead to be in line with the most up-to-date pathway options for young people.

3. Policy Aims and Ethos

As part of the University Schools Trust’s (UST) overarching mission to “provide transformational educational opportunities for all pupils”, Royal Greenwich Trust School (RGTS) strives to develop our students into successful global citizens, fully prepared and able to meet the demands of adult working life both in Britain and in the wider, globalised labour market.

This policy sets out the school’s ambition to be ‘future-focused’ in its provision of CEIAG for all students, ensuring that they have access to opportunities that will empower them to be prepared for their future career ambitions.

4. Links to Legislation and Guidance Documents

This policy fulfils the requirements for a CEIAG policy as outlined in Careers Guidance and Access for Training Providers published by the Department for Education in October 2018. In addition, this policy utilises the Gatsby Benchmarks, published by the Gatsby Charitable Foundation, to develop and improve the CEIAG provision ensuring that RGTS is fulfilling its legal duties to its students in line with CEIAG provision.

Further to these legislative links, this policy also utilises guidance from the Career Development Institute’s Framework for Careers, Employability and Enterprise Education published in March 2018. The CEIAG provision exists as an extension and development of Royal Greenwich Trust School’s Provider Access Policy and the Personal Development provision.

4.1. Relevant Internal Policies

This policy should be read in conjunction with the following policies:

- Curriculum Statement
- Provider Access Policy
- Equalities and Diversity Policy

4.2. Relevant External Documents

This policy should be read in conjunction with the relevant statutory guidance:

“Careers Guidance and Access for Education and Training Providers”; 2018

5. Roles and Responsibilities

All CEIAG activities are overseen and reported to SLT by the CEIAG lead, and to the Governors by the member of SLT with responsibility for CEIAG. Coordination of CEIAG activities within year groups is the responsibility of Heads of Year in partnership with Heads of Faculty, the CEIAG lead and Key Stage SLT Leads. Further details of named leaders and their responsibilities can be found in Appendix B.

The Deputy Headteacher, Curriculum has responsibility for setting the CEIAG strategy for the school, ensuring that the school is compliant with statutes on CEIAG provision and that resources are deployed in a cost-effective manner.

The Senior Leadership Team, specifically those with oversight for a Key Stage, are responsible for ensuring that their respective Key Stages receive adequate and appropriate provision that supports students to progress into the next stage of their educational career.

The CEIAG Lead is responsible for the implementation of the careers strategy, with a specific focus on the opportunities given to students through external partnerships.

Heads of Year, as part of the Inclusion Team, are responsible for the delivery of their Year Group’s careers programme and ensuring all students receive adequate support on their career ambitions and aspirations. Heads of Year must also work within the Inclusion Team to identify students who are at risk of becoming NEET (Not in Education, Employment or Training) and monitor the provision and impact that CEIAG is having on students to avoid them becoming NEET.

Form Tutors are responsible for the delivery of tutor time provision that links to CEIAG and should be the first point of contact for students who may have enquiries regarding careers. Key Stage 5 Form Tutors in particular have a specific role in monitoring and supporting students’ progress in their UCAS applications and post-16 pathways.

Teachers are responsible for ensuring that their lessons are designed to be future-focused, delivering high quality lessons that are engaging and allow students to develop a future-focused mindset in which they explore their future career ambitions and aspirations

The School Librarian is responsible for ensuring that students have access to a fully-resourced careers library with up-to-date careers guidance resources including prospectuses from universities, employers and training providers.

6. Careers Programme

The careers programme is rooted in the UST vision to create transformational educational opportunities for all students.

The graduate strands: Communication, Investigation, Participation, Networking, Scholarship and Vision, are embedded throughout the school, both in curriculum learning and enrichment opportunities.

The CEIAG programme (Appendix C) at RGTS identifies specific strategic aims for each Year Group, with specific emphasis on Key Stage transition points (Year 9, Year 11 and Year 13) in order to maximise students' exposure to information and guidance that will support their decisions for their next steps.

7. Curriculum Provision

RGTS, as part of the UST, is guided by the following principles to ensure that all pupils at every stage are provided with broad and balanced learning opportunities and experiences to empower them as people and as citizens. Through our curriculum, we are committed to offering:

- high expectations: commitment to excellence, so that all pupils are continually learning and maintaining high standards of themselves and others;
- academic rigour – induction into the powerful knowledge of a wide range of subject disciplines and professional practice, using this to think critically within the school and beyond;
- character-building opportunities - growth and development as individuals, in order to contribute to our school community and beyond; locally, professionally, nationally and globally;
- inclusion– provision that allows all to flourish in a way that is tailored to meet individual needs and circumstances;
- future-focused thinking – continuous improvement that focuses on future ambitions and key transitions are at the heart of our aims, habits and practices.

The principle of future-focused thinking is the guiding principle that allows curriculum leaders and teachers to identify opportunities in their lesson planning and curriculum design where students can explore the career pathways that their subject can lead to and the opportunities for further study that the subject offers.

Curriculum leaders are expected, as part of their ongoing work on designing their curriculum, to identify opportunities for further enrichment through trips, speaker visits and partnerships with external agencies. They are also expected to identify where the content of their curriculum allows students to learn more about future career pathways and develop key skills that will help students prepare for the world of work.

8. Extracurricular Provision

RGTS is committed to ensuring that students are offered extracurricular provision that will support students in realising their future career ambitions. This includes:

- Workshops for students;
- After-school and lunchtime clubs hosted by faculties;
- Assemblies;
- Competitions;
- Online webinars;
- Mentoring and coaching.

These activities are mapped out annually in line with the Gatsby Benchmarks. Where additional opportunities do arise, the school will to accommodate these opportunities, minimising disruption to the school day.

All faculty teams are expected to map out opportunities for CEIAG to be embedded into the delivery of their curriculum and additional opportunities that can be facilitated at key points in the academic year, related to the delivery of the curriculum.

All teachers are encouraged to proactively seek out CEIAG opportunities through external providers, their relevant subject associations and professional networks linked to their subject. In doing so, teachers are able to root the content of their curriculum into a future-focused delivery.

9. External Partnerships

Royal Greenwich Trust School benefits from numerous partnerships, both formally via service level agreements or memorandums of understanding and informally via programmes of sustained engagement. As part of the University Schools Trust, the school is uniquely positioned to benefit from partnerships with 6 universities (Queen Mary University of London, King’s College London, the University of East London, Warwick University and University College London) and private sector partners (Poplar HARCA, NHS and TFL) that all aim to support in delivering transformational educational opportunities for students at the school.

When seeking opportunities with universities, the school will make sure that requests are made to partner universities and those further afield to ensure impartiality.

RGTS utilises its partnerships to ensure that students explore a wide range of opportunities in education, employment and training for their post-16, post-18 and future career pathways.

The Provider Access Policy (Appendix D) sets out the necessary arrangements for managing the access of providers to students at the school and is also available on the CEIAG page on the school website.

10. Monitoring and Evaluation

The School’s Careers Programme is annually reviewed by the Senior Leadership Team. All individual activities are evaluated using a feedback form (Appendix E) completed by the participating students, participating staff and employers/activity providers. These activities are then reviewed in light of the feedback and contribute to the overall review of the Careers Programme to ensure that all activities are as meaningful as possible.

The School tracks and monitors students’ engagement and uptake of CEIAG activities. This is done to ensure that all students receive an equitable access to provision and bespoke support where needed, depending on their individual circumstances or vulnerabilities. At each of the key transition points (Year 9, Year 11 and Year 13), a register is established and monitored for students who are deemed to be at risk of becoming ‘NEET’. Using this information, the Inclusion Team, including Form Tutors, ensure that all students progress onto a pathway of sustained education, employment or training. Where students are identified as requiring additional support to secure a pathway that is right for them, the school may work with external agencies to provide additional support.

Our approach to monitoring and evaluation is long-term. We maintain accurate records of our students beyond the school through our alumni programme and utilise destination trends to inform our practice for future year groups.

11. Resources

Significant funding is allocated for the CEIAG provision at RGTS, including the costs of the service level agreements and the material resources within the school, overseen by the member of SLT with responsibility for CEIAG.

Committed spending is allocated to:

- Prospects Careers Education and Guidance Service;
- PixL membership including PixL6 membership for resources for CEIAG;
- A CEIAG lead.

In line with Gatsby Benchmark 3, a broad range of opportunities are sought throughout the year to ensure that the needs of all students are met. These include the school’s Character Development Curriculum which focuses on the relevance of skills and helps embed CEIAG into the wider narrative of school life.

Through external partnerships and a strong emphasis on networking, much of the school’s provision and support is received in kind through short and long-term partnerships. The development of new partnerships and relationships both with corporate organisations and universities is led by the CEIAG lead.

15. Appendix D – Provider Access Policy

This policy statement sets out Royal Greenwich Trust School’s arrangements for managing the access of providers to pupils at the school for the purpose of giving them information about the provider’s education or training offer. This complies with the school’s legal obligations under Section 42B of the Education Act 1997. This policy exists as an extension of RGTS Careers Education Information Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) Policy.

It sets out:

- Procedures in relation to requests for access;
- The grounds for granting and refusing requests for access;
- Details of premises or facilities to be provided to a person who is given access.

Pupil Entitlement

All pupils in years 7-13 are entitled to:

- Find out about technical education qualifications and apprenticeships opportunities, as part of a Careers programme which provides information on the full range of education and training options available at each transition point;
  - Hear from a range of local providers about the opportunities they offer, including technical education and apprenticeships – through options events, assemblies and group discussions and taster events;
  - Understand how to make applications for the full range of academic and technical courses.
- Management of provider access requests

Opportunities for Access

A number of events, integrated into RGTS’ Careers programme, will offer providers an opportunity to come into school to speak to pupils and/or their parents/carers.

A brief description of some of our opportunities for access are provided below:

Event/Programme	Frequency	Description
Assemblies	Weekly	Assembly dates for provider access are overseen and coordinated by the SLT member with management responsibilities for the CEIAG provision. The coordination of the themes for these assemblies is a responsibility of the Assistant Headteacher.

Version Control
Date	Version	Comments

Work Experience	Summer Term	All students will take part in work experience in Year 12.
Speaker Visits and workshops	Ad Hoc	Opportunities for demonstrations, talks and real-life insights into the world of work. Providers are welcome to offer opportunities for both internal and external on-site visits

A provider wishing to request access should contact: Steven Boot, Deputy Headteacher, Curriculum
Telephone: 020 8312 5480 Email: boot.s@rgtrustschool.net

Dates for additional access for ad hoc workshops and events are coordinated by the CEIAG lead in collaboration with Year Teams and Faculties.

Premises and Facilities

The school's lecture theatre, studio and classrooms all have access to a projector and a sound system. For events or workshops, please discuss requirements with the CEIAG Lead. The capacity of rooms varies from 10 students to 180 students depending on availability and requirements. To book an ad hoc event or workshop, please contact the CEIAG lead at least 8 weeks before the proposed date of the event.

If you are a provider who wishes to leave a copy of your prospectus or other relevant resources, please discuss this with the CEIAG lead to make arrangements for a space in the Careers Library, which is managed by the School Librarian.

The activity/event has made students want to go away and do more research into a particular pathway
The logistics and set up of the event were well organised by the school
The engagement and response from students was positive
I would like to do more work with students at RGTS in the future
